LAJOIE BLOCKS DEAL

Cleveland Refuses to Waiver on Blankenship.

Washington Manager Had Hoped to Naps Decline to Allow Him to Leave the American League.

Special to The Washington Herald Chicago, Feb. 13.-Joe Cantillon's plan to place Cliff Blankenship with a minor league club have been blocked by Cleve-

When the Washington manager received word some time ago that Blankenship was making arrangements to remain on the Coast next season, he immediately satisfied that he would be unable to continue in Washington and wanted to get a good berth in California rather than be sold to some small minor league team.

Seven American League managers expressed their willingness to let Blanken ship out, but when it came to Lajoie the Cleveland manager refused to waiver, Baltimore Indoor Meet Attracts saying that he was much impressed with the catcher and was anxious to land him for the Naps. It remains to be seen whether Lajole will be able to induce Blankenship to leave California and take Local College and School Squads Are another try at fast company.
